If you take LOT, you'll enjoy dinner over the Atlantic. All meals/refreshments onboard, including wine and beer (should you want them), are covered in your tour price. Other alcohol is also available at reasonable prices. We nap/sleep or watch a movie or two on your private computer, then have breakfast over Europe. The Dreamliner has lots of electronic "toys" and services, so you may not want to nap. We land at Chopin Airport in Warsaw, Poland's heroic capital city, on Friday morning.

Friday
July 20

The tour arrives in Warsaw about 10am and we immediately tour the magnificent, restored Royal Castle. Meanwhile, our bags are taken to our hotel – the Bristol Hotel, one of Warsaw’s best. (For those who have been to Warsaw, we can offer an alternate itinerary if you like. However, you may want to see the Castle again, because there is so much to see and sometimes they open new rooms.) After a light lunch on Old Town Square, we tour Warsaw's Old Town, and New Town Square. We view a film about the tragic history of Warsaw during World War Two. If there is time, you will have some shopping time and a chance to change for our evening events. We attend a private concert of Chopin piano music in one of Warsaw’s many palaces. Our welcoming dinner is at the Dom Polski Belwederski Restaurant, one of the best in Warsaw. Then, we overnight at our hotel.

Saturday

We enjoy a breakfast buffet at our hotel, with a large choice of Polish, continental, and American dishes. We visit the Polish Parliament and learn about Poland’s democratic government which replaced communist rule. We visit the National Museum to view its magnificent collection of historic Polish paintings. We view the panorama of the city from atop the infamous, communist-era Palace of Culture. We have lunch at another of the city’s fine restaurants. Next is drive to Wilanow, known as the Polish Versailles, to tour the summer residence of King Jan III Sobieski. If you have seen the palace, we suggest Warsaw’s famed Museum of Poster Art, located in Wilanow (Poland is a world leader in poster art). We have dinner at another of Warsaw’s famous spots and we enjoy a Mozart concert as part of Warsaw’s critically acclaimed annual Mozart Festival. Then back to our hotel.

Sunday
July 22

We attend Mass (if you like) at Holy Cross Church where Chopin’s heart is buried. Then back to our hotel for breakfast. Then we leave Warsaw, driving northeast into the countryside. We lunch at a charming country inn, then continue our drive east to the city of Bialystok, where we tour the Branicki Palace. We check into the rustic Zubrowka Hotel and enjoy dinner at the wonderful Carska (Czar’s) Restaurant. After dinner, Lucyna offers a quick review of Polish and Lithuanian history, so you can better understand what you are seeing.

We enjoy a picnic lunch by a lake near the forest, then drive to the village of Hajnowka to visit the Orthodox Church there to learn about Poland’s surprising religious diversity. Dinner includes an introduction to Zubrowka, the delicious vodka created in this region.

Tuesday
July 24

Following breakfast at the hotel, we drive farther northeast toward Lithuania. We stop at Czarna Wies Koscielna, a village known for its folk art, to meet with a local artist who will demonstrate his skills. Our next stop is Suprasl with its 17th century bishop's palace. We see a small but significant collection of original frescos and icons. We have lunch at a local restaurant before continuing to the Lithuanian capital of Vilnius (formerly known as Wilno in Polish). We check into our hotel, the Ramada in the center of town, and enjoy a dinner of local specialties.

We re-group for dinner at one of Vilnius landmark restaurants for a taste of Lithuanian folklore with our meal. Then to our hotel for the night.

Thursday
July 26

After breakfast at the hotel, we bus west to Trakai, the castle that was the ancient capital of Lithuania with its Vytautas Fortress surrounded by five lakes - the former residence of the Lithuanian grand dukes. We continue west, crossing the border near the town of Sejny, known for its unusual and delicious "sekacz" pastry, where we have lunch. And guess what's for dessert? We check into the St. Bruno Hotel in the city of Gizycko. There, Lucyna will give you a one-hour Polish lesson which will help orient you a bit to what you are hearing and seeing around you. Dinner will be at the hotel.

Friday
July 27

After breakfast, we drive farther west through the Pojezierze region - Poland's "land of a thousand crystal-clear lakes" created by glaciers eons ago. We stop at Sw. Lipka to see its remarkable, huge Baroque Jesuit church in this tiniest of towns. Next is lunch featuring local favorites before our afternoon drive to the Polish seashore. We arrive in Gdansk and dine at one of the city's many fine restaurants. Our overnight is at the Hotel Hanza, near everything you want to see and do.

Saturday
July 28

After breakfast at the hotel, we spend the day touring the Tri-City: Gdynia, Gdansk and Sopot. We start in Gdansk. We visit the shipyard where Solidarity was born, the Solidarity monument and museum. We see Mariacka Street in Gdansk, the largest amber market in the world. Do plan on buying some Polish amber. The selection will amaze you and the prices are so much more reasonable than in the US. There will be free time for shopping/resting/private touring and lunch on your own. Poles excel at preparing fish dishes and Gdansk is the fish capital of Poland. Enjoy! Later, we see Sopot, Poland's seashore resort town with its longest pier in Europe and the port at Gdynia. We stop in the suburb of Oliwa with its famous cathedral organ - one of the best in Europe - for a brief organ performance. Dinner is at the wonderful "Pod Lososiem" (Under the Sign of the Salmon) restaurant - a tradition in Gdansk. Then back to the hotel.

Sunday
July 29

We attend Mass at St. Brygida Church (if you like) – which became famous worldwide as the Solidarity church. Then breakfast at the hotel and we drive to Malbork Castle, former seat of the Teutonic Knights, where we tour this remarkable castle - one of the largest left standing in Europe. Lunch is at a local restaurant, then we drive to Kaszubia, a beautiful region of Northern Poland with German, Scandinavian, Dutch and Lithuanian cultural influences. We visit the “skansen” (outdoor museum) in the Kaszubian Ethnographic Park and then enjoy local specialties for dinner followed by Kaszubian songs and dances in the town of Zukowo, where Kaszubian folk items will be available for sale. Then back to our hotel for the night.

Monday
July 30

Breakfast at our hotel is followed by our drive to Torun, home town of Nicholas Copernicus, the great Polish astronomer, where we tour his museum. Torun is also home of Polish gingerbread, which you can munch on as we make a short tour of this lovely, historic town. Torun’s Old Town is on the UNESCO list of world treasures. Several Polish cities made the list. You will have time for shopping and/or lunch on your own and there are many cute spots. Then we drive to Gniezno, the first capital of Poland, with its Gothic Cathedral with bronze doors that date back to the 12th century - one of the best examples of Romanesque art in Europe. We continue on to Poznan, one of major cities in Poland, a business center that is the capital of Greater Poland. We check into the Sheraton Hotel. Our dinner includes local treats, then back to the hotel for the night.

Tuesday
July 31

After breakfast at the hotel, we tour Poznan, including its Renaissance Town Hall and bustling town square. We’ll watch the Poznan goats butt heads at the strike of noon - an old tradition. We see an example of how Poland is updating without losing its heritage – a modern shopping mall in an historic brewery. Then, free time for shopping/resting/private touring followed by lunch on your own. You have been very good travelers, so you deserve a night off. There are many restaurants to choose from for dinner on your own. You may want to dine in the square under an umbrella. It is not expensive and quite good. And people watching is enjoyable.

Wednesday
August 1

Breakfast is at the hotel before we drive toward Warsaw. On the way, we stop at Lichen, called the “Czestochowa of the North” because it has become a major place of pilgrimage. Its huge basilica was built as Poland’s thanks to the Blessed Virgin for freeing the country of communism. We stop at Zelazowa Wola, the birthplace of Frederick Chopin. We have lunch at a country inn and then drive to the suburbs of Warsaw, to the elegant Mazurkas Hotel where a farewell dinner awaits us with a last taste of Polish folklore. Do get a good night’s sleep before your return flight.

Thursday
August 2

Today is one of the longest days of your life, because of your trans-Atlantic flight. You may want to sleep in and enjoy a quiet breakfast before our departure for the airport. There will be an opportunity to do some shopping at the duty-free shops at Chopin Airport and it is recommended. As before, all food and drinks onboard your flight (including wine and beer) are covered included in your ticket price. When you arrive in Chicago, it will be 10 hours later, but it will still be Thursday afternoon.

PLEASE NOTE: The tour itinerary is subject to change. And there will be some surprises.
